RETURNING TO ORDINARY LIFE

Six weeks into our Easter rejoicing, the Church gives us readings today that start preparing us for a return to ordinary life. The Acts of the Apostles and the Gospel both dwell on proper daily behavior for followers of Jesus, while the reading from Revelation reminds us why we bother with laws at all. In Acts, leaders of the church meet to discuss which essential elements of the Mosaic Law converts must obey if they wish to be disciples of Jesus Christ. John's Gospel reflects back to the Last Supper discourse when Jesus himself emphasizes the importance of obeying God's commandments. Observing God's law, says Jesus, shows a desire to be intimate with the Lord. We follow rules not for their own sake, but to love God and neighbor better. This more excellent love brings us closer to Revelation's vision of paradise, gleaming with "the splendor of God." Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

PROCLAIM A JOYFUL SOUND AND LET IT BE HEARD; PROCLAIM TO THE ENDS OF THE EARTH: THE LORD HAS FREED HIS PEOPLE, ALLELUIA. ISAIAH 48:20

By listening attentively to the Spirit promised by Jesus (3), the early Church resolves the question whether Gentile converts need to observe certain Jewish ritual practices (1). All are called (Ps) to dwell in the heavenly Jerusalem, founded on the twelve apostles of the Lamb (2).

FIRST READING—ACTS 15:1-2, 22-29

The question of whether circumcision is necessary for salvation.

PSALM—PSALM 67

O God, let all the nations praise you!

SECOND READING—REVELATION 21:10-14, 22-23

John envisions the holy city, the new Jerusalem.

GOSPEL—JOHN 14:23-29

The Holy Spirit, sent by the Father in Jesus' name, will teach us everything.

PLEASE PRAY for the repose of the soul of Rita Miller who passed into eternal life on May 12, 2022. Rita was a long time parishioner.

THE STUNT MAN FOR JESUS

The second reading from Revelations gives us a picture of the new Jerusalem as a sign of the power and majesty of God. Yet the other two readings seem to describe a humble God who wishes "not to place on you any burden beyond . . . necessity" (Acts 15:28), and Jesus in the Gospel tells his disciples that "the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name . . . will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you" (John 14:26). This gentleness reminds me of an icon by the Russian monk Andrei Rublev that depicts the Trinity as three angels bowing in deference to each other. This humility may be what moved Jesus to say that "the Father is greater than I" (John 14:28). It is certainly a unique way of understanding God.

I used to think of free will as God's way of testing our worthiness for the kingdom of heaven. But it is more likely part of that same humility, God not being forced on us. While we are given ways to know God, especially through the scriptures and the witness of those who went before us in faith, God leaves us free to believe or not, to love God or not.

So does this mean God leaves us on our own to get through life? No, he gives us the Holy Spirit to teach and remind us of all that Jesus said. That "reminding" is an important way the Spirit helps us today. You may have spent years in religion classes or the RCIA process. When you need an answer to life's questions, the Spirit may remind you of something you heard from a teacher or read in the scriptures. As you pray over that question, the Spirit may help you understand how the scripture applies to you. So the more you read the Bible, the more likely that the Spirit will have something of which to remind you.

Tom Schmidt, Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

GRANT, ALMIGHTY GOD, that we may celebrate with heartfelt devotion these days of joy, which we keep in honor of the risen Lord, and that what we relive in remembrance we may always hold to in what we do. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS

by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

Natural or national disasters can bring out the best in humanity as we rally to help those in need. A marriage crisis can also prompt a couple to sacrifice for each other or honestly deal with a recurring problem. Don't wait for a disaster, however, to test your love. Prevention is better.

PARENTING POINTERS

by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

What does it mean to fly? – not in an airplane but to, almost magically, lift off the ground. May 29 is Ascension Sunday. Talk to your child about lifting up their spirit to God – in prayer, by doing a favor for someone... Maybe fly a kite or watch some birds together to connect with Jesus' Ascension.

I am Brady Delperdang, and am humbled to be nominated for a position on the St. Joseph Parish Pastoral Council. My wife, Grace, and I have been married for 9 years and are proud parents of 2 wonderful boys, Luke (5) and Ethan (2). Luke is finishing his kindergarten year at St. Joseph Catholic School this month and has loved every minute of it!

We have been parishioners of St. Joseph since moving to east Fayetteville since 2014, and I have been an active lector ever since. I hold a bachelor's degree in Electrical Engineering from the U of A and am currently leading the IT Transportation team for Tyson Foods.

Looking at the council, I'm excited to play a part in the continued successes and growth of our church, school, and community.
