HOLY GROUND

Moses met God in a most astounding way in the bush that was burning but not consumed by fire. Moses clearly had a powerful encounter with the Lord. He even felt bold enough to ask God's name, something unheard of among his people at the time—God's name was unspeakable. Moses stood on holy ground.

Do we not also stand on holy ground? As people who are created in God's image and drawn to Christ through the waters of Baptism, we have been filled with God's grace and goodness. The ground of our lives is holy.

Lent is a time when we are called to open our minds and hearts to Christ, rely on God's patient mercy, and to grow as God's holy people.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

MY EYES ARE ALWAYS ON THE LORD, FOR HE RESCUES MY FEET FROM THE SNARE. TURN TO ME AND HAVE MERCY ON ME, FOR I AM ALONE AND POOR.

PSALM 25:15-16

From the burning bush, Moses is called by God to lead his people out of slavery into freedom (1,Ps). The parable of the fig tree speaks, on the one hand, of God's patience, but, on the other, of the urgency of the call to conversion (3). Like the Hebrews of old, we too have failed to heed God's call, thinking ourselves to be self-righteous (2).

FIRST READING—EXODUS 3:1-8a, 13-15

The Lord God appears to Moses and directs him to go and deliver the Israelites from Egypt.

PSALM—PSALM 95

The Lord is kind and merciful.

SECOND READING—1 CORINTHIANS 10:1-6, 10-12

Those who think they are standing secure should take care not to fall.

GOSPEL—LUKE 13:1-9

I shall cultivate the ground around the fig tree and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future.

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT

As we get to the halfway point of Lent, we may be tempted to overconfidence: "The first three weeks weren't so hard. I can go a few more weeks without the things I gave up. And I've only committed a few sins; maybe I'll go to confession right before Easter." If so, it might be a good idea to look at the second reading and the Gospel.

St. Paul says that anyone who is overconfident about their lack of sin "should take care not to fall" (1 Corinthians 10:12). He compares those people to the ones Moses brought through the desert. In fact, many were punished because they were tempted to follow false gods or to complain about the food and drink God provided them. Could the same thing happen to us?

One form of overconfidence rejecting what we learned as children. We may think, "I'm old enough to decide if I should go to church" or "I can take care of myself now; I don't need God's help." If these sound familiar because you have thought that way yourself, Paul has a warning. His analogy of the Rock following the Hebrews in the desert refers to God's constant presence to the people. In the same way, God is present to us today. But just as God was not pleased with those in the desert, God may not be pleased with us if we continue to ignore the Lord.

That brings us to the Gospel. In the parable of the fig tree, the owner is not pleased—the tree has not produced any fruit. Unlike the fig tree, God would be happy with any fruit we produce. We could be generous to the poor, we could fight for the unborn child's right to life, or we could simply teach our children how to pray. Like the owner of the fig tree, God is patient, but we only have so much time. So when do you plan to bear fruit?

OVERCOMING DISASTER

In Bangladesh, cyclones and other natural disasters are increasing – destroying farms, homes and more – making it difficult for people like the Noornobis to earn a living and support their families. But Noornobi has learned new techniques to protect his land and income, enabling his niece and nephew to go to school. How can you care for creation to help the planet and our global family?

REVEAL Christ's LOVE

I should no longer say that I have neighbors to help, but that I must myself be a neighbor to others.

—Pope Francis, Fratelli Tutti, no. 81

The Catholic Relief Services Collection is an opportunity for you to help improve the lives of the most vulnerable people around the world and here in the United States. Your support funds organizations dedicated to aiding people affected by war and natural disasters, migrants and refugees in need of material and legal assistance, and people worldwide whose livelihoods are impacted by changing political and environmental conditions.

Guatemala is a leading producer of coffee, growing more than three million 132-pound bags annually, much of it exported to the United States, Japan, and Canada. Aged farms, climate change, soil depletion, and a fungal infection called coffee leaf rust that causes leaves to fall off the plant and kill it—all of these pose challenges for small coffee farmers. Odilio Geronimo is one such farmer, whose ability to support his wife and young son was threatened by a fractured foot he suffered in an accident and by a crop destroyed by leaf rust.

Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is helping Guatemalan coffee farmers like Odilio through a water-smart agriculture program that teaches farmers practices such as soil-quality identification, use of cover crops, and use of better compost. Through this CRS-supported program, Odilio has had bigger and healthier harvests with the skills he learned, which help him provide better for his family. When you support The Catholic Relief Services Collection, you provide emergency relief to those affected by disasters as well as long-term solutions that improve the lives of families like Odilio's.

VÍA CRUCIS

Los invitamos a rezar el Vía Crucis todos los viernes de Cuaresma a las 7:00 p.m. El vía crucis o viacrucis (en latín: «camino de la cruz») es un acto de devoción que realizamos los católicos de manera especial los viernes de Cuaresma, para recordar y representar la Pasión y Muerte de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo a lo largo del camino hasta el Calvario. Aquí en la Iglesia de San José, cada viernes de Cuaresma llevamos a cabo esta antiquísima tradición a las 5:30 pm en inglés y 7:00 pm en español.

ENTRONIZACIÓN DEL SAGRADO CORAZÓN DE JESÚS Y EL INMACULADO CORAZÓN DE MARÍA

El Sagrado Corazón de Jesús pide reinar en todos los hogares mediante su imagen bendecida por un sacerdote.

Consagrarse es ponerse totalmente a disposición de Cristo, es por eso un acto serio y bien meditado. Por eso se llama también entronización, porque pones un trono real en tu casa, el trono de Cristo, al cual proclamas como tu Rey, como tu Señor y Salvador y le quieres servir por amor.

Si les gustaría entronizar su hogar al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús, favor de llamar a Kathleen Blessing, 479-236-0826 ó en español a Lorena Álvarez al 479-502-0067. También pueden visitar el sitio web: <https://sacredheartglobalenthronements.com/es/homepage-espanol/>
