EASTER SUNDAY

I HAVE RISEN, AND I AM WITH YOU STILL, ALLELUIA. YOU HAVE LAID YOUR HAND UPON ME, ALLELUIA. TOO WONDERFUL FOR ME, THIS KNOWLEDGE, ALLELUIA, ALLELUIA. PSALM 139:18

On this day of days (Ps) we offer a joyful sacrifice of praise (Seq) to the Father who raised his Son from the dead (1,3). Let us be intent upon the life Christ offers us (2a), Christ our Passover who has been sacrificed (2b).

FIRST READING—ACTS 10:34a

Peter is an eyewitness: The Lord is risen.

PSALM—PSALM 118

This is the day the Lord has made;
let us rejoice and be glad.

FIRST SECOND READING—COLOSSIANS 3:1-4

All who are baptized,
set your hearts in heaven.

GOSPEL—JOHN 20:1-9

Three witnesses, Mary, Peter, and John;
Each responds to the empty tomb.

EVERYTHING IS CHANGED

Easter changes everything. Having been raised from the dead, Jesus shatters the frightful images that haunt humanity. Betrayal, torture, crucifixion, death, burial—these terrors pale in the brilliant glory of Jesus resurrected. Today's psalm guides our response to God's power: "it is wonderful in our eyes." Today is indeed a day for wonder, for gasping in astonishment at Jesus' resurrection.

For all of human history, death had been final. In the Acts of the Apostles, though, Peter testifies that Jesus, who was publicly executed, was raised to life by God. John's Gospel admits that the disciples "did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead."

Even Jesus' closest friends were not expecting this innovation: life after death. In response to the Easter miracle, Paul tells us to become "a fresh batch of dough." Everything, even our very selves, must become new. Easter changes everything.

GOD'S JUSTICE

The Gospel for Easter this year reminds me of little children. Mary of Magdala runs from the tomb when she sees it has been opened. Then Peter and the other disciple race each other to the tomb. The other one wins the race but Peter goes in first (John 20:1-5). Besides running like excited kids, there is another way they are like children.

Remember the Gospel about St. Thomas, who would not believe Jesus' resurrection until he could see him? Compare that to the disciple in today's reading, who "saw [the empty tomb] and believed" (John 20:9). That is the kind of faith we find in a little child.

Children will believe in things they cannot see, especially if there is a good reason. We "bribe" them into believing in Santa Claus or the tooth fairy by giving them Christmas presents or money under the pillow. If we teach them that God made them and loves them, if we love them ourselves and teach them to love others, they will have good reasons to believe in a real and loving God. As they get older, we can teach them how to pray, save money for the poor, visit the sick, or volunteer to help the homeless.

Jesus didn't say that only children could enter the Kingdom. He said we must become like children if we want to enter the kingdom of heaven (Matthew 18:3). Becoming like children does not mean being selfish or stubborn, throwing tantrums when we don't get our way. Those are childish behaviors that we put aside. Instead, we can keep a child-like faith and trust in God. Teaching them about God is a great way to help our own faith to grow. By giving them real examples of God's love for them, they will continue to believe long after they have given up the fairy tales of childhood.

O GOD, who on this day, through your Only Begotten Son, has conquered death and unlocked for us the path to eternity, grant, we pray, that we who keep the solemnity of the Lord's Resurrection may, through the renewal brought by your Spirit, rise up in the light of life. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

O truly blessed night,
worthy alone to know the time and hour
when Christ rose from the underworld!

This is the night
of which it is written:
The night shall be as bright as day,
dazzling is the night for me,
and full of gladness.

The sanctifying power of this night
dispels wickedness, washes faults away,
restores innocence to the fallen,
and joy to mourners,
drives out hatred, fosters concord,
and brings down the mighty...

May the Morning Star which never sets find this flame still burning;
Christ, that Morning Star,
who, coming back from death's domain,
has shed his peaceful light on humanity,
and lives and reigns for ever and ever.

Science Fair Success!

Congratulations to our junior high science fair students and Mrs. Erin Wragg on a tremendous showing at the regional science fair. Eighteen students qualified for the competition, and six SJCS students placed first in their division with six additional students receiving honors. Maria Dumond received 2nd place overall, and Mrs. Wragg was named Teacher of the Year! For the second time, our students brought home the traveling trophy for top overall school. Congrats on a job very well done!

April 17, 2022 EASTER SUNDAY HAPPY EASTER!

Our CRS Rice Bowl journey has ended, but our prayers, fasting and almsgiving continue as we seek a closer relationship with God and our global family. Let us hold in our hearts our sisters and brothers in Guatemala, Bangladesh and Rwanda and commit to share our Easter joy with those in our local community and around the world. Let us be present to our global family by caring for their material and spiritual needs.

In that spirit, 75% of all money raised through CRS Rice Bowl provides lifesaving aid to those in need in many countries. 25% of all money raised stays in our diocese for local programs to ease hunger and poverty.

Thank you for your participation in CRS Rice Bowl this Lenten season. You have made a difference in the lives of the poor.

CRS RICE BOWLS, with your offering, can be placed in the baskets located in the Great Hall. You can also place your check for CRS Rice Bowl in the collection basket. If you write a check, please make it out to St. Joseph Church and write "CRS Rice Bowl" on the memo line.

NOTE: It is so helpful to have checks or paper money instead of lots of coins.

WHAT IS A PRAYER SHAWL?

Prayer shawls are made by a team of St. Joseph parishioners who combine their love of knitting and crocheting with prayerful ministry and spiritual practice with the hope of reaching out to those in need of comfort and solace. We call our ministry Mary's Mantle.

A prayer shawl may take many forms. It can be a shoulder wrap, lap blanket, child's blanket, or neck scarf. Many blessings are prayed into every stitch. When we meet, we begin with prayers and ask God's blessings on our handiwork that it may be a source of peace and strength and a reminder of God's unceasing love for the recipient.

If you or a loved one has an upcoming medical procedure, is dealing with illness or recovery, is coping with bereavement, or experiencing times of stress, please stop by the church office and talk to Luz Morlet or call Sandy Weishaar at 479-387-2195 about receiving a prayer shawl. If you would like to join our ministry, please give Sandy a call. Our next meeting is Saturday, April 23, at 10:00 a.m.

MARRIAGE MOMENTS by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

April 22 is Earth Day. Our planet is at the door of the urgent care center. Ask each family member to commit to one act of resuscitation (plant a tree, eat vegetarian, use no single use plastic today...) If half the world population (4 billion people) did one action it would make a difference. Even better. Multiply yourself – ask another person to join you.

PARENTING POINTERS by Susan Vogt, www.SusanVogt.net

Easter has come. Hopefully you've enjoyed some Easter eggs and candy. Perhaps an Easter egg, with its hard shell but soft inside can remind you that in marriage you must crack open your defenses to uncover each other's vulnerability. Safeguard this treasure.

EASTER SUNDAY

The story of Easter reveals that the world has begun a new day. The darkness of the Crucifixion has opened into the light of Easter. Like the dawn that gradually opened to the disciples on the first Easter morning, we slowly begin to see what the light of faith reveals. Death will not have the final word, because Christ is risen and we will share in his resurrection. Injustice and suffering will not continue forever, because God's victory over sin has begun, and will be completed when Christ returns. Evil has met its match, because through Jesus, God has brought a new energy into the world. This energy can be found in followers of Christ who are free to love, empowered by the Spirit to embrace everyone, without exception. May we bear the light of Christ, with humility and courage, into our troubled world.

Re-interpreting the World

Our Gospel reading from John captures the initial confusion of Jesus' followers on Easter morning. Mary thinks the body has been stolen, and the two disciples see an empty tomb, but do not understand. We can sympathize with their initial misreading, as they are interpreting what happened within how they understand the way the world works: Jesus was crushed by the authorities—end of story. Jesus' later appearances to them will dramatically shift their perception of God, the world, and themselves.

This work of re-interpreting the world in light of the death and resurrection of Jesus continues today. In his passion and death, Jesus showed that true power, God's power, emerges through humility and forgiveness. We join in the death and resurrection of Jesus when we surrender the attractions of power, status, and comfort, and embrace non-violence, service, and care for the suffering. The path to bringing peace and goodness to the world is not through seeking control, but through sacrificial love.

El Sagrado Corazón de Jesús pide reinar en todos los hogares mediante su imagen bendecida por un sacerdote. Consagrarse es ponerse totalmente a disposición de Cristo, es por eso un acto serio y bien meditado. Por eso se llama también entronización, porque pones un trono real en tu casa, el trono de Cristo, al cual proclamas como tu Rey, como tu Señor y Salvador y le quieres servir por amor.
